Mr.Ram Janam Yadav Miss Priyanshi Srivastava	B.A.LL.B. 2 nd Year Section A	Essential Books related issues Two of my civil suits are pending in the court. Can I join the court with an advocate while studying LL.B.? If I participate in a extra-curricular activities, how can I do better?	Essential textbooks are very expensive for law students. It is advised how to manage the expense of law textbooks. No, it will be good for you to complete your studies because you can also fail by not doing class. You will watch the judicial process as a mute spectator and there will be difficulty in understanding and you will not even get money. It would be appropriate for you to go on the same day as your personal date, the rest of you should do regular classes so that you can acquire knowledge of law in time. Before participating in the programs, students should keep observing other programs and when participating in any competition, they should prepare well for whatever presentation they have to give.
Mr.Manish Kumar Singh Mr. Veer Vikram Singh	B.A.LL.B. 2 nd Year Section B	What are the ways we motivate and aware the villagers about the Lok Adalat ? Write in the exam, but do not get good marks?	Talk about financial and social benefit of it and how it is resolve their difficulties which they can face in regular court cases. First of all, write the outline of the answer to the question, such as preface, definition, purpose, etc. Important facts should be highlighted. Words should be selected in a good way. Time must be taken care of. The syllabus must be in the college so that children have easy access. The professor should have written the answers to the questions related to the subject himself so that the children see that answer and Understand what facts should be contained while writing the answer and which should not.

Mr. Birendra Kumar	LL.B. 3 rd Year Section A	How do I balance studying and parenting Sought guidance for preparation of competitive PG exams after completing the course	Students are advised to carve out meaningful time with your kids, no matter how short and then protect those moments in your schedule, even if it means foregoing an extracurricular or volunteer opportunity. And when guilt invariably creeps in, acknowledge it, but don't grasp onto it. Remind yourself that you are doing the best you can at this moment. During counselling period it is suggested how to prepare for the competition and they are advised to meet any other time depending upon the need and convenience of the student.
Mrs. Deepmala srivastav	LL.B. 3 rd Year Section B	Alcohol problem What we can do after completing the LL.B. If I participate in a competition, how can I present it better?	Try expanding your peer circle to include friends who aren't a part of your usual circuit and seek out new interests that allow you to blow off steam in healthy ways. Remember, though, that the occasional drink is ok — don't be hard on yourself if you choose to indulge in moderation every once in a while. There are lot of carrier opportunities available in the legal field but you have to choose according to your interest. It is advised to keep connected to the seniors.
Mr. Ashwani Kumar Singh	LL.B. 3 rd Year Section C	Career Prospects after Law graduate Internship related issues	Student are advised for LL.M. which can be pursued and scope of teaching and non-teaching carrier in various fields in private and government institutions.
