Mr. Ankit Kumar Mishra Mr. Manjay Kumar Yadav	LL.B. 1 st Year Section C	How to minimize stress Problem related to self-take care	Eat fruit, vegetables, and whole grain foods on a regular basis-a diet Coke and junks food are not a balanced breakfast. Don't overdo your caffeine intake; drink lots of water instead. Get at least seven hours of sleep per night. Maintain a life outside of law school. You don't need to give up all of the things you enjoyed doing before you went to law school; you just won't be able to do them as often. At times that may mean dropping certain commitments to give yourself more free time for self-care. Be sure to surround yourself with people you can lean on to help you maintain your priorities and balance.
Mr. Virendra Kumar Mohd. Amjad Ansari	LL.B. 1 st Year Section D	Financial issues English Language related issues Canteen Facility	Some students facing fee related problem, they are advised to apply for scholarship They are advised to join English language classes, read English news paper etc. Some students was not happy with the canteen facility.

Mr.Ram Janam Yadav Miss Priyanshi Srivastava	B.A.LL.B. 2 nd Year Section A	Essential Books related issues Two of my civil suits are pending in the court. Can I join the court with an advocate while studying LL.B.? If I participate in a extra-curricular activities, how can I do better?	Essential textbooks are very expensive for law students. It is advised how to manage the expense of law textbooks. No, it will be good for you to complete your studies because you can also fail by not doing class. You will watch the judicial process as a mute spectator and there will be difficulty in understanding and you will not even get money. It would be appropriate for you to go on the same day as your personal date, the rest of you should do regular classes so that you can acquire knowledge of law in time. Before participating in the programs, students should keep observing other programs and when participating in any competition, they should prepare well for whatever presentation they have to give.
Mr.Manish Kumar Singh Mr. Veer Vikram Singh	B.A.LL.B. 2 nd Year Section B	What are the ways we motivate and aware the villagers about the Lok Adalat ? Write in the exam, but do not get good marks?	Talk about financial and social benefit of it and how it is resolve their difficulties which they can face in regular court cases. First of all, write the outline of the answer to the question, such as preface, definition, purpose, etc. Important facts should be highlighted. Words should be selected in a good way. Time must be taken care of. The syllabus must be in the college so that children have easy access. The professor should have written the answers to the questions related to the subject himself so that the children see that
