Joint decision will be taken up. Punitive action could be in the nature of transfer, termination, slash the remuneration, consideration in annual performance appraisal, and demand for an apology to the victim, or any other, as deemed fit by the cell. The decision for punishment will be based on the impact of the harassment on the recipient of the same.

Forward to College Management:

The investigative report, findings and recommendations of case of sexual harassment must be duly forwarded to the management for action.

Actions by College Management:

Once the committee has reached a decision, management must take such actions: If the accused is found guilty, no recognized victim will be forced to work under or with that person. If such a provision requires the transferring of people, the victim's preferences should take priority.

If the committee reaches a verdict of guilty it must then decide upon the appropriate penalty. This decision may take into account past offenses. In other words, repeat offenders may be given harsher penalties. Penalties may be broadly grouped as:

• Minor Penalties:

- A. The harasser is required to write a letter of apology to the victim.
- B. Management writes a letter of reprimand to the harasser including a warning against further activity.
- C. Harasser is suspended
- D. Management withholds the increment from harasser for one year.
- E. The harasser is fined up to Rs 2000 or more depending on the position.

• Major Penalties:

- A. Management terminates employment of the harasser.
  - B. The harasser is demoted.
  - C. Management with hold the increment from the harasser for more than one year.
  - D. The harasser is fined more.
  - E. The harasser is a service taker or third party, management terminates service to the harasser.
- Withholding/withdrawing scholarship/fellowship and other benefits
  - Suspension/expulsion from the hostel.
  - Rustication from the Institute for a specified period
  - Expulsion from the college.
  - Any other action as per college rules.

If the Committee is of the opinion (based on the substantiated facts) that the complaint of sexual harassment was made falsely and with malicious intent, then such action will be considered misconduct. In such cases the committee may make a recommendation of the appropriate action to management.
