Minutes of Program of Environment Day

On the occasion of World Environment Day, T.R.C. A group of Law College students gathered on 5th June 2017 at 08:00 am near Kothi Gram Sabha Ausaneshwar temple premises in Barabanki district, where the Gram Pradhan and villagers were already present. The group of all the people together reached the ghat located near the temple premises. The river was completely filled with water hyacinth and weeds. All the gathered people worked tirelessly together and after cleaning the river, plantation was done on the banks of the Gomti river and trees were also distributed to the villagers. The villagers were made aware about the cleanliness of the river by the students and its importance was told. This effort and message to save the environment was commendable among the people. In the end people left with subtle refreshments.
